Established in 1968, the Pakistan Press Foundation (PPF) is a non-profit organization dedicated to advocating for press freedom, improving journalism standards, and ensuring the safety of journalists in Pakistan. With a focus on promoting freedom of expression and supporting investigative journalism, PPF plays a critical role in fostering a vibrant and responsible media landscape. Through various projects and initiatives, PPF is committed to pushing for press freedom and media safety while developing the capacities of the media.

Role Summary: PPF is seeking a skilled Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) Coordinator to lead our M&E activities, ensuring the effectiveness and impact of our projects. The M&E Coordinator will be responsible for developing and implementing M&E systems, conducting evaluations, and providing insights to enhance program outcomes. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in M&E, with experience in the non-profit sector, and a passion for media development and press freedom.

Key Responsibilities:-

- Design and implement M&E systems and frameworks that align with PPF's strategic goals and project objectives.
- Develop and maintain indicators for measuring project effectiveness, impact, and sustainability.
- Conduct regular monitoring of ongoing projects to ensure they are progressing as planned and meeting set targets.
- Coordinate and conduct evaluations, including baseline, mid-term, and end-line assessments, to assess the outcomes and impact of projects. - Analyze data collected through M&E activities and prepare comprehensive reports for internal and external stakeholders. - Provide recommendations based on M&E findings to inform strategic decision-making and project improvements. - Train and guide staff on M&E best practices, tools, and methodologies. - Ensure compliance with donor reporting requirements and contribute to proposal development with accurate M&E data. What We Offer: - A competitive salary commensurate with experience. - A dynamic and supportive work environment committed to professional development.
