February 15, 2024 | Canada The Aga Khan Health Service (AKHS) is implementing Integrated Package of Systems Strengthening, Nutrition and Immunizations in Pakistan (SNIP) with support from Gavi the Vaccine Alliance and The Power of Nutrition. The project aims to reduce the infant and child mortality and morbidity due to vaccine-preventable diseases and undernutrition through equitable and sustained immunization and nutrition coverage in priority districts of Pakistan. AKHS is looking for a highly talented and creative Programme Manager to successfully implement the SNIP project in Sindh Province. The position will play a key role in achieving three inter-related outcomes to achieve this over-arching objective. To learn more or submit an application, please see the job posting . The deadline to apply is Thursday, February 29.--About the AgencyAga Khan Health Services (AKHS): With community health programmes in large geographical areas in Central and South Asia, as well as East Africa, and more than 200 health facilities including nine hospitals, the AKHS is one of the most comprehensive private not-for-profit health care systems in the developing world. Building on the Ismaili Community's health care efforts in the first half of the 20th century, AKHS now provides primary health care and curative medical care in Afghanistan, India, Kenya, Pakistan, and Tanzania, and provides technical assistance to government in health service delivery in Kenya, Syria and Tajikistan.
