Awan sports Industries was established in 1982, as a trading company that exports soccer balls, volleyballs and other sports good from Sialkot-Pakistan. Sialkot was traditionally a city known for the quality of craftsmanship in its small cottage industry based economy. Today the cottage industries have given way to large manufacturing units and the city has become the largest sports goods manufacturing hub of Pakistan. The company thrives on innovation and is constantly striving to develop products that optimize performance, through design, structure and construction. Through close developmental relationships with suppliers and concurrent engineering of diverse departments we boast a plethora of some of the most unique and highest performing products in the market today.
