Company: horizon technologies

Location: Karachi Division

Category: other-general

One of our partner companies based in the US is looking to hire a talented screen printer with an eye for detail to oversee our company's screen-printing process. As a lead screen printer, you will be responsible for creating the printing design pattern, mixing the correct ink colors, loading the screen onto the printer, producing the final printed articles, and cleaning the machine after each batch. You may also be required to dry and fold the final printed articles before they are packaged and sent to the customer. To ensure success as a screen printer, you should exhibit advanced artistic skills, be able to stand for long hours, be comfortable with manual labor, and have excellent hand-eye coordination. Ultimately, a top-level screen printer can create beautifully designed articles that fully meet the customer's specifications.

Job Responsibilities:

Receiving work order jobs for screen printing.

Examining work orders to determine estimated printing times, ink, and material quantities.

Designing screen patterns according to customer specifications.

Selecting screen size, degreasing agents, and emulsion coatings.

Loading screens into the printer.

Installing and repositioning screen-printing plates and pressure roles.

Calibrating printer before the batch is printed.

Running prints and performing quality checks throughout the printing process.

Troubleshooting problems as they arise.

Drying, folding, and packing completed articles after the run.
